

Journal of Micropalaeontology

Volume 28, Part 2, November 2009

CONTENTS

1. Editorial F. J. Gregory	97
2. Occurrence of Vestalenula (Darwinuloidea, Ostracoda) in the Neogene of Italy, Crete and Serbia, with the description of three new species S. Ligios, K. Minati, E. Gliozzi & N. Krstic	99
3. Early Eocene marine ostracods from the Crescent Formation, southwestern Washington State, USA T. Yamaguchi & J. L. Goedert	117
4. Recent benthic foraminifera in Flensburg Fjord (Western Baltic Sea) I. Polovodova, A. Nikulina, J. Schönfeld & W.-C. Dullo	131
5. A minute new species of Saccamina (monothalamous Foraminifera; Protista) from the abyssal Pacific N. Ohkawara, H. Kitazato, K. Uematsu & A. J. Gooday	143
6. Calcareous nannofossil biostratigraphy of an outcrop section of Aptian sediments of west-central Portugal (Lusitanian Basin) R. O. B. P. da Gama, P. R. Bown & M. C. Cabral	153
7. Megaspore assemblages from the Åre Formation (Rhaetian–Pliensbachian) offshore mid-Norway, and their value as field and regional stratigraphical markers P. H. Morris, A. Cullum, M. A. Pearce & D. J. Batten	161
8. Honorary — Dr John Whittaker R. W. Jones & A. R. Lord	191

MICROPALAEONTOLOGY NOTEBOOKS

1. A bisected Pelosina rejoined! E. Alve	183
2. Wind transport of foraminiferal tests into subaerial dunes: an example from western Ireland J. W. Murray	185
3. The lectotype of Spiroplecta rosula Ehrenberg, 1854 — the type species of Bolivinopsis Yakovlev, 1891 (Foraminifera) M. A. Kaminski & D. B. Lazarus	189

Abstracted and/or indexed in Current Contents, Science Citation Index, GeoArchive, GeoRef, Geobase, Geological Abstracts and CABS (Current Awareness in Biological Sciences)

Cover Illustration. TMS Logo (Mark Purnell produced the microfossil images for each TMS Group and Steve Starkie designed the logo).

Price: £85.00

0262-821X(200911)28:2;1-W