

Journal of Micropalaeontology

Volume 3, Part 1, March 1984

CONTENTS

1. A note on the Early Cretaceous biostratigraphy (foraminifera) of borehole 49/24-1 (Shell/Esso) in the southern North Sea
S. Crittenden 1
2. Some geometrical aspects of fusiform planispiral shape in larger foraminifera
M. D. Brasier 11
3. Tournaisian miospore assemblages from Maesbury in the eastern Mendips, England
K. Higgs & G. Clayton 17
4. Wall structure of the agglutinated foraminifera Eggerella bradyi (Cushman) and Karrieriella bradyi (Cushman)
J. F. Weston 29
5. The Triassic radiolarian genus, Triassoerucella gen. nov. and the Jurassic Hagiastrum Haeckel, 1882
H. Kozur 33
6. The occurrence and distribution of megaspores in the Drybrook Sandstone and associated measures in the Forest of Dean basin, Gloucestershire, England
E. Spinner 37
7. The dinoflagellate cyst genus Polygonifera; emendation and taxonomic stabilisation
N. C. Mehrotra & W. A. S. Sarjeant 43
8. The W. B. Carpenter Collection of Foraminifera: a catalogue
J. W. Murray & C. M. Taplin 55
9. Larger agglutinated foraminifera from the Faeroe Channel and Rockall Trough collected by W. B. Carpenter
J. M. Murray & C. M. Taplin 59
10. Designation of lectotypes for certain species and subspecies of unilocular Nodosariida and Buliminida (Foraminifera), Part 1 – those housed in the British Museum (Natural History)
R. Wynn Jones 63
11. Erratic palynomorphs from some British Hills
C. O. Hunt 71
12. Observations on the Jurassic dinoflagellate cyst Nannoceratopsis ambonis Drugg, 1978
J. B. Riding 75
13. On the ostracod genus Micrommatocythere Wilkinson, 1983
I. P. Wilkinson 81